HOUSTON BUSINESS JOURNAL

OmniBank opens first San Antonio branch

Houston Business Journal - 3:21 PM CDT Tuesday, April 17, 2007

OmniBank N.A. is replacing its loan processing office in San Antonio with a full-service branch.

The planned 5,000-square-foot branch office will be located at 1314 E. Sonterra Blvd, Ste. 101 on the city's north side. It will feature three drive-thru lanes, one drive-up ATM and will house six employees.

OmniBank had more than $300 million in assets as of Dec. 31, 2006. It was founded in 1954 and has a total of eight branches in Houston, Lockhart, Austin and now San Antonio.

The full-service bank specializes in interim construction real estate lending, commercial lending, commercial real estate lending and SBA lending and caters to women-owned businesses.